COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

UNIVERSIDAD AUTONOMA DEL ESTADO DE MEXICO

AND

RED RIVER COMMUNITY COLLEGE

In order to advance friendly relations between Canada and Mexico, Red River Community College and Universidad Autonoma del Estado de Mexico join in the following agreement on the promotion of educational and academic exchanges between the two institutions.

Both institutions will make every reasonable effort to encourage direct contact and educational and research cooperation between their faculty members, scholars, departments and research institutes, to the extent that they are able, under provision of this agreement, and endeavour to cooperate in the fields with which both parties are concerned. Within spheres that are mutually agreed to, both institutions agree on the following general forms of cooperation:

- 1. Joint research activities
- 2. Exchange of academic materials and academic publications
- 3. Exchange of faculty members and scholars for research, lectures and discussions
- 4. Exchange of students for study and research
- 5. Development of specific programs to provide opportunities for students to learn the language and culture of the other country
- 6. Development of customized programs or services in demand in the local markets.

Themes of joint activity and the conditions for utilizing the results achieved and arrangements for specific visits, exchanges, and other forms of cooperation will be negotiated for each specific case.

Both institutions understand that all financial arrangements should be negotiated and will depend upon the availability of funds.

It is understood that the implementation of this agreement will commence on the 30 day of April, 1996, and that this agreement will continue thereafter for five (5) years, subject from time to time to revision or modification by mutual agreement. Furthermore, if, up until a period of one month prior to the maturity of this document, neither party demonstrates a wish to in any way alter the conditions stipulated in the document, then the document will automatically remain valid for the following five (5) year period.

This agreement is made in duplicate in English and Spanish, both being equally authentic.
